2012 Banksia Forum
27th October 2012
Melbourne Convention & Exhibition Centre

“Engendering change through the Power of Influence”

The 2012 Banksia Forum enables the wider community to listen and share in the Banksia Award winners’ insight, expertise and passion.

The Banksia Forum is all about hearing examples of inspirational achievements from driven individuals who have sought and implemented real solutions, exemplified by winning a Banksia Award.

It highlights how we as nation are leading the way, providing us with an insight into how we can all progress on our own environmentally sustainable path.

The Banksia Awards, now in its 24th year, deliver a group of leaders with a proven track record acknowledged by experts and their peers through the rigorous Banksia Awards process.

This forum provides you the opportunity to hear their amazing stories and feel empowered to take a part in reinventing Australia’s sustainable future.
